RULES

1. The base dates in determining the classes in which animals should be shown are listed in class description
2. To be eligible for competition, whether single or in groups, animals must be bona fide property of exhibitors, except where otherwise specified. Certificates of registration or transfer showing ownership must be produced by the exhibitor if requested by the superintendent of cattle. In the class for produce of dam, animals need not be owned by the exhibitor.

3. The owner of the dam at the time of service shall be considered the breeder of the animal.

4. Firms and co-partnerships entering animals for competition must be in existence sixty days prior to the date of closing entries, and in all cases must be bona fide.
Affidavits of the age of the firms may be required by the management. Firms and co-partnerships entered into for show purposes will not be recognized by the association, but cattle bred by a member of the firm or company shall be considered as bred by the company. Should temporary sale or transfer of a show animal be discovered, the exhibitor and proper owner may be barred from any and all future shows.

5. Every female over twenty-four months old must have produced a living calf within twelve (12) months or prove to be with calf. A freemartin heifer shall be barred from showing until she has become of age as to have proven a breeder.

6. Any exhibitor making a false or misleading statement, exhibiting cattle that have been artificially fitted or treated, showing an animal out of proper class, substituting one animal for another without proper correction of records at the cattle superintendent's office before entering the ring, or for any other dishonorable practice, shall forfeit all premiums. If payment to exhibitor has been made before the evidence is given that such violations have occurred, the exhibitor must refund the premium money so forfeited to the Ashland County Fair Board of the State of Ohio or be barred from showing at the Ashland County Fair in the future.

7. The judge may, in his opinion, require any cow to be milked while in the ring or before the awards are made.

8. All animals must be shown in their proper classes.

9. Judges may not award a prize to any unworthy exhibit. It is the intention of the management that no premium or distinction of any kind shall be given any animal that is not deserving.

10. Open Class Dairy judging will be held Monday, September 19, 2011 at 9:00 a.m.

11. Produce of dam shall consist of two females of any age - the produce of one cow.

12. Exhibitors must specify on entry blank the number of animals entered.

13. Purity of blood as established by pedigree, symmetry, size, early maturity and general characteristics of several breeds of all animals to be considered. The judge will make proper allowance for age, feeding, and other circumstances.

DEPT. 103 DAIRY CATTLE

14. Each breed to be shown separately for champion.
15. Do not make entries in Championship classes.
16. Entries in each class must be in the show ring within ten minutes following the first call.
17. Any individual or group wishing to donate a trophy in any class in any breed, may do so (except championship classes). Trophy must be purchased through the Fair Board to insure uniformity.
18. Any registered Jr. Fair Dairy Female is eligible for open class upon payment of entry fee by deadline date.
19. Exhibitors MUST keep pens and aisles clean and in order, along with keeping their animals on exhibit clean and well cared for, as a part of their contribution to the Ashland County Fair. Exhibitors must place manure outside of building in area provided for loading. Manure must not be left on ramp or platform. Exhibitors neglecting to do this will be warned for the first offense. Premiums and special awards won shall be forfeited for further neglect and lack of cooperation.

2011 ASHLAND COUNTY DAIRY PRODUCT SALE

COMMITTEE

Kevin Spreng - President, Heidi Cutlip - Treasurer, Sheri McGovern - Secretary, Kristy Spreng, Deb Cornish, John Cutlip, Roger & Deb Fulk, Kent McGovern, Steve & Becky Moffett

On Monday, September 19, 2011 at 12:30 p.m., the Ashland County Junior Fair Dairy Cattle Promoters will hold their annual auction.

Items to be sold are handcrafted by local artisans and craftsmen; 10 dairy product baskets will be sold, along with many other items to be displayed in the Dairy Barn previous to the sale.

The proceeds will be used to reward those youth showing Dairy in 2011.
